

Orange County ACM SIGCHI

Monthly Meeting

May 4, 2005, 6:00-7:30 PM

Held at Wonderware in Lake Forest

Wednesday, May 4th at Wonderware in Lake Forest, 6:00 pm

Speaker: Tutti Taychakhoonavudh, Manager of Information Architecture / Usability at Gateway Computers

Talk: Magic at Work: a case study of a website redesign done the usability way

Abstract:

Tutti Taychakhoonavudh will discuss the process of redesigning the Disney Meetings website and lessons learned along the way. The process spans the Discovery phase with requirements gathering and person sessions; the Design phase with creation and usability testing of site map, templates, and wireframes; and the end Development phase

Tutti's Bio

Tutti is currently the Manager of Information Architecture / Usability at Gateway Computers responsible for the external web site as well as internal GUI and web applications. Today's presentation is a flashback to her former days as an Information Architect with the Walt Disney Internet Group, designing UI / IA solutions for a variety of Disney Web properties including Disneyland.com, Disney Weddings and Disney Meetings. Prior to Disney, she was with Oracle as a Senior UI Designer and as an Interaction Designer at Washington Mutual working on interfaces for various Web applications.

The meeting is free and open to anyone.
